CTTP is a collective of various sovereign Northern California Tribal nations offering Temporary Assistance to Needy Families (TANF) in approximately fifteen (15) counties in Northern California, and is governed by the Robinson Rancheria Citizen Business Council. The goal of the CTTTP Program is to provide temporary assistance and services to Native Families while developing strategies to establish long term self-sufficiency for each family. The nature and Spirit of the CTTTP Program is to provide services to Native families that promote and stimulate their economic growth while recognizing and incorporating cultural identities as well as customs. CTTTP is funded by Federal and State grants under the Administration for Children and Families.

CTTP is seeking quotes for Carbon Black Defense. It is preferable that submitted quotes be valid for 60 days from submission, but must nonetheless state the term for which it is valid and must be no less than 30 days.

CTTP reserves the right to reject any and all quotes, in whole or in part, as well as the right to issue similar RFQ's in the future. This RFQ is in no way an agreement, obligation, or contract and in no way is CTTP responsible for the cost of preparing the responsive quote. One copy of a submitted quote will be retained for official files and may later become public record. Only written responses will be accepted. Delivery to other than the name and address specified in this RFQ may render Bidder's quote non-responsive.
